

A Lion in the House

a film by Steven Bognar & Julia Reichert

Rubric – HELPING HANDS FOR SIBLINGS

CRITERIA	3	2	1	Comments
Demonstrates an awareness of the situation of a family impacted by cancer, and empathy for the sibling of a cancer-stricken brother or sister.	Demonstrates a valuable awareness of the situation of a family impacted by cancer, and empathy for the sibling of a cancer-stricken brother or sister.	Demonstrates some awareness of the situation of a family impacted by cancer, and empathy for the sibling of a cancer-stricken brother or sister.	Demonstrates minimal awareness of the situation of a family impacted by cancer, and empathy for the sibling of a cancer-stricken brother or sister.
Demonstrates an understanding of media importance and influence.	Demonstrates a keen awareness of media importance and influence.	Demonstrates some understanding of media importance and influence.	Demonstrates minimal understanding of media importance and influence.
Demonstrates ability to work with others by sharing ideas, tasks, and responsibility.	Demonstrates strong ability to work with others by sharing ideas, tasks, and responsibility.	Demonstrates some ability to work with others by sharing ideas, tasks, and responsibility.	Demonstrates minimal ability to work with others by sharing ideas, tasks, and responsibility.
Demonstrates reliability and sensitivity in working with the chosen sibling, and commitment to the selected service action.	Demonstrates strong reliability and sensitivity in working with the chosen sibling, and commitment to the selected service action.	Demonstrates some reliability and sensitivity in working with the chosen sibling, and commitment to the selected service action.	Demonstrates minimal reliability and sensitivity in working with the chosen sibling, and commitment to the selected service action.

You can make a difference

“You know you are truly alive when you are living among lions.”
— Isak Dinesen