

A Lion in the House

a film by Steven Bognar & Julia Reichert

Rubric - JOB SHADOWING: LEARN ABOUT CAREERS IN MEDICINE

STUDENTS CAN USE THE FOLLOWING RUBRIC TO ASSESS THEIR JOB SHADOWING EXPERIENCE. STUDENTS CAN MODIFY THE RUBRIC TO SUIT THEIR NEEDS. AN IMPORTANT POINT TO REMEMBER IS THAT STUDENTS ARE NOT ONLY ASSESSING THEIR FINAL ACHIEVEMENT, BUT ALSO THEIR GROWTH IN KNOWLEDGE.

Criteria	3	2	1	Comments
Student knowledge about the job shadowing process	Student has a strong understanding of the planning and commitment needed for effective job shadowing	Student has some understanding of the planning and commitment needed for effective job shadowing	Student has minimal understanding of the planning and commitment needed for effective job shadowing
Student awareness of careers in the health care industry	Student has a strong awareness of careers in the health care industry	Student has some awareness of careers in the health care industry	Student has minimal awareness of careers in the health care industry
Student self-knowledge of his/her suitability for a career in the health care industry	Student has a strong self-knowledge of his/her suitability for a career in the health care industry	Student has some self-knowledge of his/her suitability for a career in the health care industry	Student has minimal self-knowledge of his/her suitability for a career in the health care industry
Student participation in class activities and job shadowing experience	Student has consistent participation in class activities and job shadowing experience	Student has moderate participation in class activities and job shadowing experience	Student has minimal participation in class activities and job shadowing experience

You can make a difference

"You know you are truly alive when you are living among lions."
— Isak Dinesen